SRI R. GUNDU RAO (Minister for Transport and Tourism).—

(a) No.

(b) Yes.

(c) During 1967,

(d) 1 acre 26 guntas and 4 Sq. Yards in S. No. 396 in Tikota town.

(e) No. The proposal is under the consideration of the Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation.

Zones of Sugarcane area in Mandya District

222 SRI G. MADEGOWDA (Kirugaval)—Will the Minister for Commerce and Industries be pleased to state :—

(a) whether it is a fact that the sugarcane area in Mandya District is divided into three zones under Pandavapura Sugar Factory, Mandya Sugar Factory and Kalamuddanadoddi Sugar Factory ;

(b) whether the Government is aware of the hardship caused to the sugarcane growers in the district as a result of this zonal system?

SRI AZEEZ SAIT (Minister for Industries and Commerce)—

(a) Certain number of villages have been reserved in favour of the Mysore Sugar Company Limited, Mandya, and Chamundeshwari Sugars Limited Kalamuddana Doddi, Maddur Taluk. No such area has been reserved for the Pandavapura S.S.K. Limited. It's area is limited by its Bye-laws.

(b) No such instances have come to Government's Notice.

Permitting visitors and the press-Representatives to watch the Proceedings of the House.

SRI C. M. ARUMUGHAM.—Mr. Speaker, Sir, I want to make a submission in support of the points raised by my friend Sri Sheernaly Chandrasekhar. Sir, I want to bring to your notice the Rules of Procedure of this House. I will read Rule 319.

> "319 The admission of strangers during the sittings of the Assembly to those portions of the Assembly which are not reserved for the exclusive use of members shall be regulated by the Speaker."

So, it does not say that strangers should not be admitted to those portions of the Assembly which are not reserved for the exclusive use of members. But it shall be regulated by the Speaker. That is point No. 1.